REMARKS

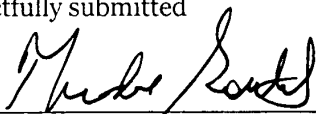

The paper copy and computer readable form of the Sequence Listing have been amended according to the Examiner's suggestion and PTO guidelines. MPEP § 2426.

In the original SEQ ID. No. 2, the numeric identifier <212> corresponding to the TYPE of sequence disclosed was incorrectly presented as "amino acid." This has now been amended to read "PRT" in accordance with MPEP § 2424.02.

Enclosed is an amended paper copy of the entire Sequence Listing, including the uncorrected SEQ IDs. Also, please find two new compact disks containing the entire Sequence Listing, including corrected SEQ ID No. 2.

In accordance with 37 CFR § 1.825(a) I hereby state that the submission contained on the paper copy is identical to that on the disks, and is fully supported by the specification. Further, it is hereby stated that these submissions do not introduce new matter.

Respectfully submitted
